Good to Know ... Don't Forget

Hello World Travelers!

How time flies, in just about a month we'll find ourselves in Mexico. It's hard to believe soon we'll be soaking up the sun on the beautiful beach while the snow flies in the Midwest. Sandy beaches, Sunny Days, No Responsibilities and No Worries.

As a reminder and for those joining us for the first time; here is some information that's good to know.

- Passports are required. Passport must be valid at least 6 months beyond dates of travel. Driver's license suggested but not required.
- Checked luggage allowance is two pieces per person (50lbs each)
 - Early arrival to the airport is especially necessary due to the new luggage fees. You will need to pay the luggage fee prior to checking bags and this will add to the check in time. Luggage policy varies by airline. Once you receive your tickets you will be able to check the website to get detailed information about your specific airline.
 - Carry-on guidelines are crucial. Airlines are double checking carry-on baggage to make sure that it doesn't exceed the maximum of 45 linear inches and 40 pounds.
- Most airlines charge additional for food and beverages during flight. You are allowed to pack snacks in your carry-on. Your best option would be dry food sealed in the original container. Beverages must be purchased after clearing security.
- There are exciting golf courses near by but remember golf clubs are considered one of your checked luggage. Consider renting clubs.
- Resort Casual Attire is suggested for all First Supply events
- Dining options are plentiful and offer an expansive variety. Try one or try them all. Indulge.
- Vallarta Palace serves Pepsi products
- Telephone calls placed to a US phone number from your room are complimentary.
- Complimentary WIFI is available in all guest rooms and throughout the resort. The business center has additional services available for a fee.
- Planning some exciting adventures? Refer to the enclosed itinerary summary as a guide to what's going on and when. You'll receive a more detailed itinerary with your airline tickets.
- Airline tickets will be mailed approximately 2-3 weeks prior to departure.
- Gifts are always fun. Your salesperson is currently delivering fun gifts for you to bring along. If you don't receive your package prior to year end; please contact your salesperson.
