

December 15, 2010

Tacky is Terrific!

This year First Supply is celebrating the tackiest of tourists. Dig through the closets, rummage through the basements to find your finest. Fanny packs, binoculars, water bottles, misting fan, maps, sun screen, tote bags, cameras, maps, sunglasses, sandals, leis and straw hats.

Black socks with brown sandals – incredibly stylish. Muu Muus with knee highs – doesn't get any better. Shorts and socks that meet at the knees – timeless.

Your creativity and courage will be greatly rewarded.
Donning your finest earns you prizes.

- Get creative with your First Supply t-shirt; the more colorful and crazy the better. Wear it to the welcome reception and show off your style. Win a fabulous prize.
- The farewell reception is where you will really shine. Prizes will be rewarded for the most authentic, crazy, creative and expressive Tacky Tourist outfit. Your creativity will be rewarded with cash for first, second and third place for men and women. Don't be shy; let your tacky tourist shine.

See the enclosed card for fashion ideas. Or Google tacky tourist; you'll be amazed by the variety of ideas. Now get digging or shopping; your local thrift store has just the perfect outfit.

We can't wait to see how tacky you can be.
Good Luck!